

Calling All Capitals!

In this unit, you will review why we capitalize certain words and not others.

DIRECTIONS: Read the passage below and use the Magic Pen to circle the capital letters as you find them. Discuss why you think each word is capitalized. Record your ideas in the organizer at the bottom of the page.

Captain Spencer called out for assistance from any officer in the area of Joe's Fish Market. A thief who was carrying Atlantic sea scallops and Canadian salmon had been spotted by Mrs. Wimbley. Mrs. Wimbley saw the thief travel west on Oak Lane and try to stuff the fish into his Samsonite suitcase. Luckily, Officer Weston was just leaving Delicious Doughnuts Bake Shop and was able to get to Oak Lane just in time.

Upon being apprehended by Officer Weston, the thief cried out, "I should have listened to my Aunt Edna when she said I wasn't cut out for a life of crime." The thief was then taken to the Elizabethtown Municipal Court, where he was sentenced by Judge Lynn Gweeney. Judge Gweeney decided to make the thief serve his time at the Aqua Aquarium, where he was forced to clean the fish tanks.
