

Hey, We're Important, Too!

You know that you need to capitalize the names of specific people, places, and things. These are all proper nouns. Check out the list below for some examples of proper nouns you might not think about!

Don't forget to capitalize these proper nouns...

Historical documents
Days and months
Holidays
Organizations and schools
Government bodies
Ethnic groups
Languages
Awards

DIRECTIONS: Use the star shape ★ from your Creative Pen to mark all of the the specific things (proper nouns) that should be capitalized. Tap above the word to make the star appear.

1. The constitution is respected by members of the democratic party and republican party.
2. This year, halloween is on friday, october 31st.
3. Students from chestertown elementary school will plant trees on arbor day.
4. Many latinos speak spanish as their native language.
5. The united states celebrates independence day on the fourth of july.
6. The lincoln memorial is located in washington, d.c.
7. The story won a caldecott medal.
8. The cub scouts have their first meeting on thursday, january 23rd.