

Bookworms and Movie Buffs

Capitalization is important for titles of books, movies, and other published works. Follow these rules:

- RULE: Capitalize the first and last word in a title.
- RULE: Capitalize all verbs and nouns in a title.
- RULE: For other words, use lowercase if the word has four or fewer letters. Use a capital if the word has five or more letters.

Titles include names of:

Books
Newspapers
Magazines
Short stories
Poems
Plays
Movies
Songs

DIRECTIONS: Correct these titles by highlighting the letters that need to be capitalized.

1. gone with the wind
2. the new york times
3. "the star-spangled banner"
4. phantom of the opera
5. the land before time
6. highlights for children
7. sarah, plain and tall
8. tales of a fourth grade nothing
9. all dogs go to heaven
10. the giving tree