

Drawing Conclusions

Read the story and the questions. Fill in the circle next to the best answer to each question.

The trip to Egypt was something that Lynn and her family had looked forward to for years. She and her family would spend two weeks in this ancient country. Lynn would finally be able to see the pyramids.

The whole family saved so they could do this. While some families spent money on snacks and toys, the Millers put their extra money in the bank. They decided that family vacations were better than snacks and toys.

This trip was special for many reasons. Mrs. Miller had worked in Egypt years ago. Lynn had studied Egypt in school and loved it. Mr. Miller and Nick had made friends with an Egyptian soccer player. Everyone was excited about the trip.

1. How did the Millers feel about the trip to Egypt?
 - ☐ The children wanted to go more than the adults.
 - ☐ Everyone was looking forward to it.
 - ☐ The only one who was excited was Lynn.
2. Which describes the Miller family?
 - ☐ They saved money for their trip.
 - ☐ They went on trips often.
 - ☐ They spent their money on snacks and toys.
3. Which of these is probably true of the Millers?
 - ☐ The adults make the vacation decisions.
 - ☐ They plan vacations the whole family can enjoy.
 - ☐ The children have more fun on vacation than the adults.